

Online Order/Purchase

I would like to cancel/amend my order

If you have not yet arranged payment and also no longer wish to proceed with the order, no action is required. Your order will be automatically cancelled after a specific time.

If you have already arranged payment, your order can no longer be cancelled after this point in time.

Items on orders which have been submitted cannot be amended later on. Please place a new order for additional items required. If you have placed an incorrect order and have not arranged payment yet, disregard this order and place a new order.
